

Atlantic Health Employees Federal Credit Union Privacy Policy

Atlantic Health Employees Federal Credit Union is committed to making available, financial products and services that will enable our members to meet their financial needs and reach their financial goals. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with member expectations is a high priority for this credit union.

We will collect only the personal information that is necessary to conduct our business, i.e.; just what is necessary to provide competitive financial products and services.

We will maintain strong security controls to ensure that member information in our files and computer is protected. Where appropriate, we will use security coding techniques to protect against unauthorized access to personal records, ensure accuracy and integrity of communications and transactions, and protect member confidentially.

Members will always have access to their information. They will be given the opportunity to review their information and make necessary changes to ensure that our records are complete and accurate.

Atlantic Health Employees Federal Credit Union will only share information when absolutely necessary. We will only share information to administer the products and services we provide, when required to do so by the government or when we partner with other businesses to offer a broader array of products and services.

Atlantic Health Employees Federal Credit Union will partner only with businesses that follow strict confidentiality requirements. The businesses we select will offer products designed to enhance our members' economic well-being. Under no circumstances will we authorize these firms to charge a members account without the members express consent, and we will not sell member information to telemarketing firms.

We will offer our members a choice in how their information is used. Any member of our credit union may elect to keep their information from being shared with our business partners. We will inform them on how to exercise their choice and we will take all reasonable steps to make sure their requests are followed. At least once a year, we will remind all members of their right to choose.
